FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PITTSBURGH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
HOSTS OPEN HOUSE APRIL 5

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will host “Spring Journey” Sat., April 5 from 8:30 a.m.-3: 00 p.m. at the Seminary, 616 N. Highland Ave.

Throughout the day, prospective students are invited to explore the Seminary, think about their call to ministry, understand theological education more fully, learn important information about admissions requirements and procedures, and hear about scholarships and financial aid that is available to students.

To make a reservation for this event, call the Director of Admissions, the Rev. Sherry Sparks, at 1-800-451-4194 or e-mail admissions@pts.edu. Reservations are also accepted online at www.pts.edu/visit. Those participants traveling from a distance will be provided with housing and meals free of charge.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 380 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God’s message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
