CENTER FOR ADAPTIVE AND INNOVATIVE MINISTRY MENU

We believe the best creative work happens as part of a larger thriving ecosystem. All members of the ecosystem aren't meant to be the same, so we delight in the creative energy and varied foci of our collaborators—and we are always looking for new collaborators. Working together makes us better at what we do, opens us to new (and sometimes even disconfirming) information, and makes the work we do more fun. Working together keeps us learning and seeds our visions for future possibilities. Some of our collaborators have included:

1001 New Worshiping Communities of the PCUSA

Episcopal Church Office of Church Planting

Cyclical LA

The Ministry Collaborative

Pittsburgh Presbytery

The Neighborhood Resilience Project

Garfield Community Farm

Southwestern PA Synod (ELCA)
