

CHURCH STUDY ON MISSION AVAILABLE

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary's World Mission Initiative Director Donald Dawson and Associate Director Jennifer

Haddox '06 have authored Into All the World: Participating in God's Mission. Identifying the missional identity of the church, this study focuses on the mission of God and how participants can live out God's work in the world.

These articles about Presbyterian beliefs are designed to supplement the PC(USA) adult curriculum, Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding, a series of biblically-based minicourses providing a foundational understanding of the Reformed faith. Topics include worship, baptism, the church and politics, discipleship, and more.

To learn more about the Seminary's World Mission Initiative and our commitment to mission, visit www.worldmissioninitiative.org. To order this study, call 800-524-2612 or visit www.pcusa.org/beingreformed.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 310 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
