

DAVE HOSICK RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED ALUM AWARD

The Rev. Dr. David R. Hosick '76 calls himself a "cradle Presbyterian" and says, "I cannot remember a time I was not intrigued by and strongly drawn to Jesus Christ."

After college, Dave worked for General Nutrition Corporation in Pittsburgh in retail and purchasing. He moved up the corporate ladder but felt restless and unfulfilled. Sensing a call to ministry, Dave attended Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

Upon graduation he served a number of congregations in Nebraska, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, and Florida. He was associate pastor at Central PC in Omaha, with responsibility for Christian education and youth. Fairhill PC (now Heritage PC) called him from Omaha to Lincoln, where he served for four years as solo pastor.

Returning home, Dave was associate pastor for evangelism and community outreach at First PC of Sharon, Pa. He then worked for 16 years as head of staff at First PC of Meadville, Pa. Following his time there, Dave moved to Tryon PC in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina. Finally he served First PC of St. Petersburg, Fla., and retired from there in 2015. He now moderates the Western Region Committee on Ministry of Tampa Bay Presbytery and volunteers at the St. Petersburg Free Clinic.

Additionally, Dave has served on and moderated a variety of presbytery and synod committees and has taught at conferences and in seminary classes. He has written articles for Faith at Work magazine, These Days, and reNEWS and has led Bible study trips to Israel, heritage trips to Scotland, and mission trips to Central America.

Dave earned his BA from Grove City College, MDiv from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, and D.Min. from Fuller Theological Seminary. In his free time Dave likes to golf, fish, read, work crossword puzzles, and cheer for the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates. He is married to his wife of 43 years, Joanie. They have three children.

Dave is one of five grads who will receive the Seminary's 2016 Distinguished Alumnae/i Award during the upcoming banquet Wed., May 26.
