

LENT DEVOTIONAL APRIL 20, 2014

EASTER SUNDAY

SCRIPTURE

Luke 24:13-35

13 Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, 14 and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. 15 While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, 16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17 And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. 18 Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" 19 He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. 21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. 22 Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, 23 and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. 24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." 25 Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! 26 Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" 27 Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. 29 But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. 30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. 32 They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" 33 That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. 34 They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" 35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

DEVOTIONAL

We'll stick with the daily lectionary reading today. Chances are you'll read one of the more traditional passages elsewhere.

Also, I love this passage. The walk to Emmaus is great because it's so real. It's an encounter between traveling strangers. We encounter strangers in a different way when we travel, even today. We encounter people in planes and airports, on shuttles, subways and trains, at rest stops and gas stations.

But of course, when they eat together, no longer side by side but face to face, they recognize Jesus for who he is. This meal is the mirror image of the meal we encountered just a few days ago. It's on the other side of death. The people eating with Jesus will go on not to deny or betray, but to preach and proclaim. The hope has been realized. It is no longer time for mourning, but for rejoicing. Christ is risen!

Message provided by the Miller Summer Youth Institute.

A special thank you to the Rev. Derek R. Davenport for writing the Lent devotionals. Derek is the Seminary's director of enrollment and co-director of the Miller Summer Youth Institute. He's a 1997 grad of SYI and a 2005 alum of the Seminary earning his M.Div. degree.

EASTER SUNDAY

Scripture

Luke 24:13-35

13 Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, 14 and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. 15 While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, 16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17 And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. 18 Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” 19 He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. 21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. 22 Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, 23 and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. 24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” 25 Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! 26 Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” 27 Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. 29 But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. 30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. 32 They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” 33 That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. 34 They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” 35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Devotional

We'll stick with the daily lectionary reading today. Chances are you'll read one of the more traditional passages elsewhere.

Also, I love this passage. The walk to Emmaus is great because it's so real. It's an encounter between traveling strangers. We encounter strangers in a different way when we travel, even today. We encounter people in planes and airports, on shuttles, subways and trains, at rest stops and gas stations.

But of course, when they eat together, no longer side by side but face to face, they recognize Jesus for who he is. This meal is the mirror image of the meal we encountered just a few days ago. It's on the other side of death. The people eating with Jesus will go on not to deny or betray, but to preach and proclaim. The hope has been realized. It is no longer time for mourning, but for rejoicing. Christ is risen!

Message provided by the Miller Summer Youth Institute.

A special thank you to the Rev. Derek R. Davenport for writing the Lent devotionals. Derek is the Seminary's director of enrollment and co-director of the Miller Summer Youth Institute. He's a 1997 grad of SYI and a 2005 alum of the Seminary earning his M.Div. degree.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
616 North Highland Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Phone: 412-362-5610

FIND YOUR PROGRAM

REQUEST INFO

APPLY ONLINE

VISIT THE CAMPUS

News & EventsContactDirectionsEmployment Save Page As PDF

Privacy Policy

COVID-19

Accessibility

Anti-Discrimination

Title IX And Anti-Harassment