HEARING HISTORY, SEEING ACTIVISM

Join Pittsburgh Theological Seminary in the month of October 2021 for a series of events that consider the unheard narratives in our congregations and communities. As we welcome our new president Dr. Asa Lee to PTS, we invite you to add your voice to conversations that will focus on the local, national, and international stories that shape who we are.

OCTOBER 6

7:30-9:00 p.m. ET, online

W. Don McClure Lectures in World Mission and Evangelism

Lecture, "Christian Justice, Exploitation, and Racial Violence from 'Red Rubber' to 'Bloody Sunday'"

Kimberly Hill, Assistant Professor of U.S. and African American History, University of Texas at Dallas
