

THE IGNATIAN SPIRITUAL EXERCISES AND CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

Instructor: Martha A. Robbins, Th.D., Director, Pneuma Institute Spiritual Direction and Leadership Program, and Joan Marshall Associate Professor Emerita of Pastoral Care, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

This course will explore (1) the overall content, prayer forms, and structure of the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises; (2) the underlying dynamics and graces for each of the four major movements of the Exercises, and, (3) how these facilitate a deepening Christian discipleship and participation in Christ's mission according to one's unique gifts and call. The structure and process of the course is designed to give participants a taste of the Spiritual Exercises through periods of instruction, prayer, silence, reflection, discussion, and worship. Hence, all participants are strongly encouraged to be in residence for the week at the Kearns Spirituality Center, a ministry of the Sisters of Divine Providence.
