

JOIN US FOR THE VIRTUAL ADMISSIONS FAIR

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, along with nine other seminaries of the Presbyterian Church

(USA), and the Committee on Theological Education of the PCUSA, will be hosting a virtual fair Tues., Oct. 4, 2011, from 10:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. EDT. This is an opportunity for prospective students to learn about PTS, as well as the other seminaries, from the comfort of their homes via the Internet. Information about degree programs, financial aid, faculty, and the opportunity to apply online are some of the features easily accessible with the click of the mouse. Admissions representatives will be readily available for live text chatting. Join us!

Pittsburgh Seminary offers Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity joint degrees in Law, Social Work, and Public Policy, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, Master of Divinity with an emphasis in Church Planting, and Doctor of Ministry degrees. Special programs include continuing education opportunities, a Metro-Urban Institute with graduate-level courses focusing on urban ministry, the World Mission Initiative, and the James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum.

Login to this free college fair from any computer with an internet connection. Registration is free (and easy!). Meet Pittsburgh Theological Seminary live online Tues., Oct. 4. Admissions officers will be staffing our booth at the online event, so stop by and say hello! Contact Associate Directors of Admissions the Rev. Click to view e-mail or the Rev. Click to view e-mail '05 to learn more about the virtual fair.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 320 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
