

LEADERSHIP THROUGH CONFLICT

AN ONLINE CONTINUING EDUCATION CLASS

Instructor: Leanna Fuller, Assistant Professor of Pastoral Care, PTS

In this online class, we will explore the dynamics of leadership in settings of conflict, particularly that of the local congregation. The course will introduce conflict and change as key areas that must be addressed by leaders in any institutional context. Conflict and change will be presented not as “problems” to be solved, but rather as normal parts of organizational life that, if handled well, provide opportunities for personal and communal growth. Time will be spent exploring current conflict theories; however, the emphasis of the class will be on the identity and awareness of the leader when serving in conflicted environments.

DATES

April 4-29, 2016

The class materials will be available 24/7. This asynchronous format allows those enrolled to access material for the course when it is personally convenient.

FEES AND CEUS

Registration Fee: $75

CEUs: 1.5
