

OCTOBERQUEST VISIT EVENT

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will host OctoberQuest, an event for prospective students,

Fri., Oct. 16-Sat., Oct. 17. This event will occur on campus, 616 N. Highland Ave.

Throughout the day, participants will explore ministry and Pittsburgh Seminary's unique resources in fieldwork, urban issues, archeology, dual degree programs, and more. This two-day event features faculty-led workshops, tours of campus and the city, information from admissions and financial aid officers, and fellowship opportunities with current students.

Reservations are required. Contact the Admissions Office at 1-800-451-4194, admissions@pts.edu, or www.pts.edu/visit to reserve your spot at this free event. Overnight accommodations are available for those traveling from a distance.

Pittsburgh Seminary offers Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity dual degrees in Law, Social Work, and Public Policy, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, and Doctor of Ministry degrees. Special programs include exciting continuing education programs, a Metro-Urban Institute with graduate-level courses focusing on urban ministry, the World Mission Initiative, and the James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 320 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
