INTO THE LIGHT: PASTORAL RESPONSES TO THE OPIOID CRISIS WITH SUE WASHBURN AND LEE MCDERMOTT

INSTRUCTORS

Sue Washburn, Pastor, Reunion Presbyterian Church, and Interim Editor, Presbyterians Today

F. Lee McDermott, Pastor, The McClellandtown and Grace Chapel Presbyterian Churches

DATE / SCHEDULE

Oct. 27, 2017, 8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. / Schedule

OVERVIEW

A workshop for faith community leaders

By attending this workshop, we hope attendees will become affective allies to those impacted by addiction by helping them to be pastorally present to those affected by addiction; and to learn how to talk about addiction in the sanctuary and in other church conversations.

After the workshop, attendees are invited to join the instructors as they lead the Seminary's chapel service in the manner outlined during the morning session. Western Pennsylvania county representatives will be available to continue the discussion over lunch for those who wish to stay.

Learning objectives

Familiarize faith leaders with the dynamics of addiction in the lives of those experiencing it and their loved ones

Equip faith leaders with basic skills and information for being pastorally present to those affected by addiction and making appropriate referrals

Provide faith leaders with liturgical and church strategies and resources for including addiction in the conversations and worship of the faith community

REGISTRATION FEE / CES AND CEUS / DIRECTIONS

Registration Fee: $25 / If you wish to stay for lunch (an additional $10 fee), sign-up is available as an optional item in the online registration.

CEs: 4.0 CEs available for licensed social workers, marriage/family therapists, and professional counselors.

CEUs: Provided to clergy and laity upon request.

Directions: Directions to the Seminary. Free parking is available on campus behind the chapel and library.
