Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is committed to being a resource to the community. So, to make your Ordinary Time service planning a bit easier, inside we've provided a Worship Planning Kit, "What is Ordinary Time?" video and accompanying lesson plan. Use these free resources as they are, or adjust them for your context!

WORSHIP PLANNING WORKBOOK

The Worship Planning Workbook covers Pentecost Sunday through Christ the King Sunday. But, you can start anytime! The Planning Pages include the name of the Sunday, Scripture readings based on the Revised Common Lectionary Passages, some thoughts on one of the passages from a member of the PTS community or a historical figure, and a spot for a "To Do" worship planning list. There's also space for free writing.

"WHAT IS ORDINARY TIME?" VIDEO

Share this video with your congregation, youth group, or adult Bible study! Also, here's a great lesson plan to accompany the video that explores Ordinary Time. DOWNLOAD THE LESSON PLAN

You can also download the video directly to your computer so that it's easy to use when you don't have Internet access.
