

PNEUMA KICKS-OFF THIS MONTH

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will kick-off the Pneuma Spiritual Direction and Leadership Certificate Program August 27-29. The first group meets for a two-day retreat during which time they will be introduced to the new two-year program.

The program offers educational and supervised training of pastors and laity in the dynamics of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola while engaging in Reformed, Catholic, and other diverse theological perspectives on growth in faith and the Christian life.

Participants select between two tracks: Spiritual Direction or Spiritual Leadership.
