

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT VISIT EVENT HELD JANUARY 8-9

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will host an Epiphany Event, a day of exploration for prospective students, Jan. 8-9.

Since 1794 Pittsburgh Theological Seminary has been bridging the Word and the world. During the upcoming Epiphany Visit event, prospective students will explore the many ways that their bridge to the future may start here. Participants will learn about the Seminary's unique resources in fieldwork, urban issues, archaeology, dual degree programs, and more. Though the main portion of each Pittsburgh Experience weekend occurs on Saturday, visitors are welcome to attend Friday afternoon sessions for conversations on vocational options, for a light meal and evening prayer, and for a tour of the city. Saturday will be filled with faculty-led workshops, tours of campus, information from our admissions and financial aid officers, and fellowship opportunities with current students. To reserve a spot at this Epiphany Event visit www.pts.edu/visit, e-mail Click to view e-mail, or call 1-800-451-4194.

Pittsburgh Seminary offers Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity dual degrees in Law, Social Work, and Public Policy, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, and Doctor of Ministry degrees. Special programs include exciting continuing education opportunities, a Metro-Urban Institute with graduate-level courses focusing on urban ministry, the World Mission Initiative, and the James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 320 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
