

RAINBOW COVENANT RESOURCES COLLECTION

The library and the Rainbow Covenant are highlighting a collection of library resources for education on conversations about the church and the gay community. The collection was curated by the Rainbow Covenant in collaboration with library staff, and will also be featured as a digital LibGuide on the library website to serve as a long-term resource for the campus community. Visit the display end caps around the second floor atrium opening to peruse the collection and check out materials.
