

REFRESHING YOUR OLD TESTAMENT BIBLICAL HEBREW

Instructor: James Durlless, Lecturer in Biblical Languages, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, and UMC Pastor (retired)

Area clergy are invited to refresh their Old Testament Hebrew by reading together selections from the Old Testament and reviewing essential points of grammar. There will be an opportunity to examine modern translations with an eye to the question of why scholars have made the choices they have in rendering the Old Testament into English. Participants can expect that their sermons, teaching, and general theological understanding will all gain from their experience in this study group.

Dates: Sep 30, 2013 - Nov 4, 2013

Visit the Continuing Ed website for more information.
