PCHE CROSS REGISTRATION

Cross Registration is a program through the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education (PCHE) that provides opportunities for enriched educational programs by permitting full-time students to register for graduate level courses at other area schools. The schools that participate in cross registration are Carlow University, Carnegie Mellon University, Chatham University, Community College of Allegheny County, Duquesne University, LaRoche College, Point Park University, Robert Morris University, and the University of Pittsburgh. Additional information can be obtained in the Registrar's office. Access the cross registration form.

AUDITING A COURSE

Auditing of regular Seminary courses is a traditional option for clergy to update their knowledge and for laity with a bachelor's degree to gain increased familiarity with a specific theological subject. No academic credit is given for audits. Applications for audit shall be accompanied by a college transcript and be submitted to the Registrar's Office.
