

ROBERT T. HARPER NAMED ANDERSON AWARDEE

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary has posthumously given The John Anderson Award of Merit to Robert T.

Harper. Family members accepted the award Fri., June 1, 2012 during the Seminary's 216th Commencement Exercises.

The Anderson Award is bestowed by the Board of Directors of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary upon those individuals who have contributed distinctive service to the Seminary and community at large. The Anderson Award is named for Pastor John Anderson, founding president of the Seminary in 1794.

Robert (Bob) T. Harper (1954-2012) served on the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary Board of Directors from 1996 through 2005 and spent five of those years as chair. Bob was a shareholder with Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney in Pittsburgh, where he served on the firm's board, was vice president of administration, co-chairman of the firm's Corporate Practice group, and chairman of the Health Law Practice group. Over the years, Bob earned a number of law awards and was listed in The Best Lawyers in America for Corporate Law and Health Law for 17 consecutive years. In 2010, Bob was named "Pittsburgh Health Care Lawyer of the Year" by Best Lawyers, and in 2012 the publication named him "Pittsburgh Corporate Lawyer of the Year." In 1998, Bob became an adjunct professor of law at the University of Pittsburgh.

An active church member, Bob served the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Upper St. Clair, Pa., as legal counsel and clerk of session. He was married to Sue and had two daughters, Elizabeth and Emily. "Bob served with enthusiasm, humor, and decisiveness as Chair of the Board," said the Rev. Dr. William J. Carl III, president and professor of homiletics. "He was a good friend and colleague in ministry who will certainly be missed by many both here and around the country."

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 310 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

###

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary has posthumously given The John Anderson Award of Merit to Robert T. Harper.

Family members accepted the award Fri., June 1, 2012 during the Seminary's 216th Commencement Exercises.

The Anderson Award is bestowed by the Board of Directors of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary upon those individuals who have contributed distinctive service to the Seminary and community at large. The Anderson Award is named for Pastor John Anderson, founding president of the Seminary in 1794.

Robert (Bob) T. Harper (1954-2012) served on the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary Board of Directors from 1996 through 2005 and spent five of those years as chair. Bob was a shareholder with Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney in Pittsburgh, where he served on the firm's board, was vice president of administration, co-chairman of the firm's Corporate Practice group, and chairman of the Health Law Practice group. Over the years, Bob earned a number of law awards and was listed in The Best Lawyers in America for Corporate Law and Health Law for 17 consecutive years. In 2010, Bob was named "Pittsburgh Health Care Lawyer of the Year" by Best Lawyers, and in 2012 the publication named him "Pittsburgh Corporate Lawyer of the Year." In 1998, Bob became an adjunct professor of law at the University of Pittsburgh.

An active church member, Bob served the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Upper St. Clair, Pa., as legal counsel and clerk of session. He was married to Sue and had two daughters, Elizabeth and Emily. "Bob served with enthusiasm, humor, and decisiveness as Chair of the Board," said the Rev. Dr. William J. Carl III, president and professor of homiletics. "He was a good friend and colleague in ministry who will certainly be missed by many both here and around the country."

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 310 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

###

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
616 North Highland Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Phone: 412-362-5610

FIND YOUR PROGRAM

REQUEST INFO

APPLY ONLINE

VISIT THE CAMPUS

News & EventsContactDirectionsEmployment Save Page As PDF

Privacy Policy

COVID-19

Accessibility

Anti-Discrimination

Title IX And Anti-Harassment