BETWEEN THE ALTAR AND THE WORLD: INTERPRETING LIFE LITURGICALLY

HENDERSON SUMMER LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

DATE

Sun., June 2 - Wed., June 5, 2019

OVERVIEW

Love of the church and love of God's people means that we stand at an intersection - between the altar and the world. We wrestle with the realities of a broken world as we proclaim the promise of God's reign - while at the same time, addressing the need to ever reform our faith communities. Our liturgies - and how they integrate our world, our neighborhoods, and our church - can be one key means for remembering the heart of Christian identity and revitalizing our communities.

During this year's conference, we will:

- discover how liturgy comes to life beyond the altar;
- gather for worship, plenary sessions, and lectures; and
- meet in workshops to investigate the variety of ways liturgy can be offered and embraced by diverse groups.

Come prepared for a rich engagement of your senses and soul as we join together!

The first 30 registrants will receive a free copy of Dr. Carvalhaes' book, What Has Worship Got To Do With It? Interpreting Life, Church and the World Liturgically.

Notice of Photography and Filming When you enter a Pittsburgh Theological Seminary event or program, you enter an area where photography, audio, and video recording may occur.
