

SEMINARY OFFERS WEEK-LONG PERSPECTIVES COURSE

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary's World Mission Initiative invites pastors and church leaders to spend one week, Aug. 15-21, deeply considering God's mission for the church. This program, Perspectives, is a discipleship training course outlining the reality of God's worldwide movement and how we can be involved, no matter our location or vocation. Each lesson is taught by a different ministry expert. Students learn to find God's perspective through the biblical foundations, historical evidence, and current cultural and strategic work of the expansion of the Church worldwide. Along the way, students are challenged to discover their role in God's plan.
