

SPIRITUAL FORMATION WEEKEND 2012

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will host “Immersion Weekend: An Invitation to a Deeper Spiritual Life” May 3-6, 2012. This class is part of the Spiritual Formation Certificate Program and will be led by Mary Lynn Callahan, interim director of spiritual life ministries at East Liberty Presbyterian Church and spiritual director.

Time is spent on the program’s four components: academic, communal, personal, and practical. An important facet of this week is the opportunity to reflect on one’s spiritual pilgrimage. Participants are led through guided meditations and spend time in prayer, reflection, and journaling. The Immersion Weekend provides a safe place on a risky journey to be with God; encouraging laughter, fellowship, recreation, and rest with other Christians through Scripture, prayer, singing, and worship; offering academic and practical learning through lectures, reading, and discussion.
