

CE ELECTIVE FOR PSYCHOLOGISTS, SOCIAL WORKERS, AND THERAPISTS

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will offer “The Neural Basis of Mindfulness and Human Well-

Being”—a continuing education elective for psychologists, social workers, and therapists—Mon., May 7, 2012 at 10:00 a.m.

Join renowned scholar Philippe Goldin, research scientist in the department of psychology at Stanford University, for this exciting journey into the intersection of ancient meditative practices and neuroscience. Goldin will provide a crucial bridge between meditative practices and discoveries in neuroscience. In addition, he will share the implication of these findings for psychopathology, healthy functioning, and clinical practice.

Cost is $95 for the full session and $15 for the lecture only. Continuing education units are available. Contact Continuing Education at ConEd@pts.edu or 412-924-1345 to learn more. Brochure

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 310 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God’s message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
