The per credit hour cost of the Doctor of Ministry program is $358. Billed tuition, rent, and fees are payable, in full, by the 15th day of the month, following a seminar/class session (for example: Student billing statements dated Sept. 30 are due no later than Oct. 15). There is a $5.00 late fee plus a finance charge of 1/2 percent per month on the open account balance. Additionally, a $300 technology fee will be assessed yearly ($100/per registration). Seminary policy requires all students' account balances to be paid in full before they can register for the following term. The Seminary accepts cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, or Discover for payment. Please make checks payable to Pittsburgh Theological Seminary (or PTS). Credit card payments are accepted online at my.pts.edu or in person at the Business Office.

Students who do not complete their doctoral project by the graduation date of the year they register must apply for an extension each year beyond that date until the project is completed. Extensions for doctoral projects will be approved by the Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program and the fee of $1000 per year will be charged to your account until the doctoral project is completed. This fee is necessary to maintain student status and full privileges to Library materials (including offsite access to online resources and databases), and the Seminary computer lab.
