Notes

* In person and hybrid options will only be possible if public health conditions and Seminary policies permit and will revert to remote delivery if necessary.

** Because TH320 is required for graduation, students unable to attend in person may contact Dean Vacek for permission to access the live class from a remote location.

*** All WS110 sections will have one planned, in-person session during the semester (to access the library), if possible.

All synchronous sessions will meet within scheduled windows but may not meet for the full class period. Please contact course instructors for more detail.

Courses that appear in BOLD print are offered in the evening.

Definitions

- Hybrid: some sessions meet in person (if possible) and sessions meet remotely (in synchronous and/or asynchronous format).
- Synchronous: sessions meet live (with instructor and other students) at the time the class is scheduled, often via Zoom.
- Asynchronous: students access course material for the week at a flexible time. material delivered in a variety of formats including recorded lectures boards.
