GATHERING

Prelude

Largo

George Frideric Handel

Call to Worship

Psalm 95:1-7 (The Inclusive Bible)
John Welch

Leader: Come, let us sing joyfully to God!
Raise a shout to our rock, our deliverance!

People:* Let us come into God's presence with thanksgiving, and sing our praises with joy.

Leader: For the Lord is a great God,

People:* the great Ruler, above all gods.

Leader: O God, in your hands are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks are yours.

People:* Yours is the sea, for you made it,
The dry land as well, for your hands have formed it.

Leader: Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

People:* For you are our God,
and we are the people you shepherd,
the flock under your care.

Leader: If only you would hear God's voice today!

Processional Hymn

Brethren, We Have Met to Worship

GtG #396

Invocation

Christian Brooks, Carrie Buckner

Leader: Praise the Lord!

People:* The Lord's name be praised.

Leader: Spirit divine, inspire our prayer and make our hearts your home.

Descend with all your gracious power;

come, Holy Spirit, come!

Come as the light, reveal our need,

and lead us on paths of life.

Come as the fire, cleanse our hearts with purifying flame;

let our whole life be an offering to our Redeemer's name.

Come as the dove, spread your wings of peaceful love;

and let your church on earth become as your church above.

Spirit divine, make this lost world your home.

Come, Holy Spirit, come!

People:* Amen.

* Please rise in body and/or spirit

Confession and Forgiveness

Response Glory to God Whose Goodness Shines on Me

GtG #582

The Passing of the Peace

Leader: The peace of Christ be with you all.

People:* And also with you.

A sign of Christ's peace may be exchanged by all.

Leader: Lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,
with all humility and gentleness,
with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Eph. 4:1-3

Profession of Faith

Renunciations

Leader: Trusting in the gracious mercy of God,
do you turn from the ways of sin
and renounce evil and its power in the world?

People:* I do.

Leader: Who is your Lord and Savior?

People:* Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior.

Leader: Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love?

People:* I promise, with God's help.

Profession

Apostles' Creed

Leader: With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

People: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: Eternal and gracious God, we give you thanks ...

...

... be all glory and honor, now and forever.

People: Amen.

Invitation

Leader: Remember your baptism and be thankful.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

*Congregants are invited to approach the font,
remember their baptism by taking a stone from the water,
and receive a blessing*

Congregational Song

You Belong to Christ

GtG #492

After all have been signed and blessed:

Leader: May the Holy Spirit work within you,
that having been born through water and the Spirit,
you may live as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

People: Amen.

The Story of Our Worship Space

As part of an ongoing revitalization of worship life at PTS, Hicks Chapel has undergone significant changes over the past few years. The intimacy and flexibility of our renovated space now support the diversity and creativity of worship planning and leadership that we encourage through our chapel program.

The process began in the summer of 2012. We first removed the pews of the lower part of the sanctuary and replaced them with chairs. We then installed carpeting and repainted the walls, contributing to the space a sense of warmth that was previously lacking. Finally, we ordered a liturgical suite made by Erich Thompson. Rev. Thompson is a Presbyterian minister who has found a calling in the design and construction of liturgical furnishings. You can read more about his work at www.erichthompson.net.

The sanctuary's "default" set-up embodies a theological understanding of God's church. Upon entering the sanctuary, worshipers are immediately greeted by the Baptismal font as a reminder that we do not enter God's presence on our own accord, but because God reached out to us in the covenant of baptism. The chairs are arranged in a circle, creating an intimate atmosphere that allows us to integrate worship leaders, musicians, and choirs into one community. It is from this community that God calls upon members to proclaim His Word. Therefore, the pulpit is placed as a part of the community circle. The pulpit is "flexible," but not "multi-functional" – it can be moved, but not because it is merely a lectern. When we preach, we speak not in our own name, but in the name of the Lord. To symbolize this, our pulpit reflects the shape of a traditional pulpit in which the preacher, as it were, disappears into the structure that surrounds. In this way, the worshiping community's focus is directed toward the Word, rather than the speaker.

At the center of the sanctuary is a large, square communion table. It is supported by three legs on each of its four sides. According to the designer, this four times three scheme aims to remind us of the Trinity, the four Gospels, and the twelve Disciples. Additionally, the face of each side shows the Hebrew symbol shin – standing for shalom, Shaddai, and shakina. It is around this table – the Lord's Table – that the community gathers. Because the table is square, there is no definitive "head." This reminds worshipers that in our celebration of the Lord's Supper, it is not the presider who is the host, but Christ himself.
