Faculty Position in Pastoral Care

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, a graduate institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), seeks a professor to teach introductory and advanced courses in Pastoral Care and related areas in all of the Seminary’s academic programs (M.Div., M.A., S.T.M., D.Min.), and the continuing education program. This person must have experience in the practice of pastoral care and counseling (or pastoral psychology) and the ability to integrate this practice with the various theological disciplines.

In addition to teaching, the professor will serve on faculty committees and contribute to the academy and the church. This person must have a commitment to the preparation of women and men for the Christian ministry, be an active participant in the life of a Christian communion, and possess the ability to work collegially in a Reformed context.

This is a tenure track position and rank is open. A Ph.D. or its equivalent is required. Women, international candidates, and members of historically underrepresented racial and ethnic groups are especially encouraged to apply. Send application letter, CV, and letters of reference to Dean of Faculty, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, 616 North Highland Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15206-2596 or email to facultysearch@pts.edu. Applications will be acted upon as received, beginning September 30, 2012.
