Faculty Position in Urban Ministry

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary – a graduate institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) with a commitment to the ecumenical community – seeks a professor to teach courses in Urban Ministry in all of the Seminary’s academic programs (M.Div., M.A., S.T.M., D.Min.) and in the continuing education program. This person will teach introductory and advanced courses in Urban Ministry, Church and Society, and related courses in other areas of personal competence. This person will also have administrative responsibility for the Seminary’s Metro Urban Institute.

In addition to teaching, the professor will serve on faculty committees and contribute to the academy and the church. This person must have a commitment to the preparation of women and men for the Christian ministry, be an active participant in the life of a Christian communion, and possess the ability to work collegially in a Reformed context.

This is a tenure track position and rank is open. A Ph.D. or its equivalent is required. Women and members of historically underrepresented racial and ethnic groups are especially encouraged to apply. Send application letter, CV, and letters of reference to Dean of Faculty, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, 616 North Highland Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15206-2596 or email to facultysearch@pts.edu. Applications will be acted upon as received, beginning October 15, 2012.
