AUDIT REQUEST
Current Students / Spouses / Staff

PTS students, student spouses, and staff may attend one course per term for listening purposes provided the course is open to auditors. There is no cost for full-time students, spouses, or staff but registration through the Registrar's Office is required. Part-time students pay the current audit fee. No academic record is kept for audited classes.

A list if courses available for audit is made available each term on the website at https://www.pts.edu/Registrar .

If you are interested in auditing a class, please complete the information requested below and return this form to the Registrar's office.
