TITLE: Directions in the Christian Story (EVENING)  TERM: Spring 2021-2022

PROFESSOR: Kenneth Woo  CREDIT HOURS: 3

REGISTRATION: LIMITED TO: UNLIMITED  # AUDITORS: NO AUDITORS

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course surveys the history of Christianity from the Reformation to the present. Ecclesial and doctrinal developments will be considered with special attention to the different forms that Christian life and thought have taken as the church has entered new cultural contexts and discerned faithfulness to God’s mission.

CLASS OBJECTIVES:
This course aims to prepare students for further theological study by providing a historical framework for understanding the development of Christian doctrine, practices, and institutions from the Protestant Reformation to the present day. This will include some attention to the cultural and political contexts of modern Christianity, and how these shaped and continue to shape, Christian faith and traditions in various global contexts.
