PITTSBURGH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
January Term 2026-27
January 4, 2027-January 27, 2027

Students should choose from among the offerings of those courses that best meet their needs.
Students in the MAPS and MTS degrees can enroll in these courses for elective credits.
Course #	Course Title	Credits	Time	Day/Date	Instructor	Room	In Person	Synch OL	Asynch OL
EF 410-OL 	Polity of the Presbyterian Church USA	3	6:30-8:45pm	M & W	T. Hancock			X
			9:00am-12:15pm	Saturday				X
	Weekly Asynchronous coursework		per Professor and Syllabus						X
	Fulfills Ecclesial Formation requirement for Presbyterian Students
MI 310 -OL	Intercultural Experiential Learning	3			Farrell/Moe
	Online class sessions -- pre-trip		5:00pm - 9:00pm	Jan 4-6				X
	Appalachia		Jan 8-18
	Guatemala		Jan 9-18
	Online class sessions -- post-trip		5:00pm - 9:00pm	Jan 25-27				X
	 MI 310 is a required course for the MDiv program. Participation in one of the trips is required.
	All participants in an intercultural trip must take or audit MI-310 (or have taken it or audited it in the past).
PC 466-OL	Religious Trauma & Spiritual Abuse	3	6:30-8:45pm	T & Th
			9am-12:15pm	Saturdays	Gibson			X
	Weekly Asynchronous coursework		per Professor and Syllabus
CM-251-OL*	UM Polity	3	https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/explore-wesley-non-degree-application/
	This course is a one week intensive taken through the partnership with Wesley Theological Seminary and fulfills Methodist Studies requirements.
	Please contact the Regirsr's Office for registration information.

10/6/2026