Ecclesial Formation is an umbrella term for a variety of simultaneously offered courses that help students meet denominational requirements for ordination and otherwise prepare them for ministry. These courses invite students to become acquainted more deeply with their own theological and ecclesial traditions while also exploring the broader ecumenical context.
Ecclesial Formation is a requirement for M.Div. students , usually in their Middler year. Students should choose from among the offerings those courses that best meet their needs. Students in the MAPS and MTS degrees can enroll in these courses for elective credits
