TITLE: Missional Leadership & Evangelism
TERM: Spring 2019-2020

PROFESSOR: Hunter Farrell
CREDIT HOURS: 3

REGISTRATION: LIMITED TO: UNLIMITED
AUDITORS: 2
NO AUDITORS

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course explores biblical, theological, and historical understandings of Christian mission and evangelism with a view toward practices for leading the church to discern and participate in God’s mission within particular contexts.

CLASS OBJECTIVES:
- Biblical, theological, and historical resources which form and inform Christian mission and the missional congregation
- A consideration of the ways in which Christian mission interprets biblical, theological, and historical sources
- Contemporary mission practices, theologies and challenges in post-colonial and post-Christendom contexts
- Critical and constructive engagement with practices and theologies of evangelism
- Practices for leading mission and missional congregations, and leading communal missional discernment in particular
- A project which helps students to envision concrete practices of mission in a particular context

PREREQUISITES: CS110, CH110, CH120, TH210

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS/READING:
Required Texts
- Additional Readings on myPTS

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING:
1. Each student will share their testimony (the story of what God has done in their life) with the class.
2. Students will engage in interfaith conversations with religious leaders from three of Pittsburgh’s religious communities.
3. Students will write a one page reading reflection paper for seven readings and for the three interfaith conversations during the semester.
4. Mission Theology Final Paper on a subject proposed by the student from any of missiology’s sub-fields: mission history, mission theology, mission anthropology, world religions, or evangelism.

ATTENDANCE: Required.