COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course represents a biblically-theologically rooted approach to planting mission-shaped churches. The course focuses on the formation of church planting leaders able to cultivate new mission-shaped Christian communities in specific contexts. Students will develop the capacity to be theologically reflective church planting leaders from within concrete personal and communal postures, habits, and skills of initiating and leading the formation of new Christian communities.

CLASS OBJECTIVES:

1. Demonstrate capacity for interpreting and imagining particular contexts as a site for God's mission
2. Reflect biblically-theologically on the task and vocation of cultivating mission-shaped Christian communities;
3. Develop leadership capacity for cultivating postures, attitudes, and behavior related to initiating and forming Christian community in specific contexts;
4. Develop spiritual habits of discernment for participation in the mission of God
