COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is the second of two courses introducing students to Christian doctrine. Students are invited to reflect theologically on the biblical narrative of God's gifts through the Spirit of the risen Christ, including justification, sanctification, vocation, the church, the sacraments, and the eschatological consummation of God's reign, as lifted up in the church's creedal confessions. Attention will be given to how God's being and work draw us into God's mission and give shape to faithful practices and ministry within particular cultural contexts.

CLASS OBJECTIVES:

By the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a basic knowledge of the doctrines of the person and work of the Holy Spirit and of the gifts of God through the Spirit, including the church, worship, sacraments, scripture and its interpretation, salvation, vocation, justification, sanctification, and eternal life in God's eschatological consummation of all things in Christ.
2. Demonstrate an awareness of how these doctrines are rooted in scripture, confessed by the church, and witnessed in faithful communities today.
3. Narrate and reflect on their own Christian experience in relation to these doctrines and on how their experience has been shaped by their denominational traditions, by the wider Christian community, and by social contexts.
4. Reflect on the practices that open Christians and communities to the experience of the Holy Spirit in particular cultural contexts.

PREREQUISITES: TH01 or permission of the instructor.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS/READING:

- St. Basil the Great, On the Holy Spirit. Note that any recent edition or format (including eBook) is acceptable. The most expensive is ISBN-13: 978-0881418767, which lists at $17.00 in paperback.
- Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together. eBook or print edition (ISBN-13: 978-0060608521, $10.98).
- R. Cole-Turner, Prayer in the Trinity. This book will be available through Amazon by July 1 at an estimated cost of $3.99. ISBN-13: 978-0998068626.
- All other materials will be provided through the course web portal. Given the amount of reading from Calvin's Institutes, students may want to consider purchasing a copy (make sure it's the Westminster Press translation edited by McNeill).

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING:

Several short papers will be required.

ATTENDANCE: Required.
