Edward P. Wimberly is the Jarena Lee Professor of Pastoral Care at the Interdenominational Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Ga., where he has also served as vice president for academic and student affairs/provost (2001-2011). Dr. Wimberly returned to ITS after teaching at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary and Oral Roberts University for a period of eight years. He is a graduate of the University of Arizona (B.A.), and Boston University (S.T.B., S.T.M., and Ph.D.). A member of the New England Conference of the United Methodist Church, he has published many articles and books, including No Shame in Wesley’s Gospel: A Twenty-First Century Pastoral Theology (Wipf and Stock, 2011), African American Pastoral Care, Revised Edition (Abingdon Press, 2008), Winds of Promise: Building and Maintaining Strong Clergy Families (Discipleship Resources, 2007), and Prayer in Pastoral Counseling: Suffering, Healing and Discernment (WJK, 1990). Dr. Wimberly is the 2007 recipient of the Distinguished Achievement in Research and Writing Award from the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. He served as pastor at St. Andrew’s United Methodist Church (Worcester, Mass.) and Immanuel Church (Winchendon, Mass.), and associate pastor at Sherman United Methodist Church (Evanston, Ill.) and Rocky Head United Methodist Church (Atlanta, Ga.). He has also held several administrative roles during his career including minister of urban affairs for the Worcester Area Council of Churches (Worcester, Mass.) and pastoral consultant at Fuller Community Mental Health Center in Boston. In addition, he has offered his service on various committees including the editorial board of Methodist Review.

The Albright-Deering Lectures in Methodist Studies were established in 1999 through individual contributions and a generous gift from Joseph and Gail Deering of Dayton, Ohio, to celebrate Joseph’s career accomplishments and to honor their former pastor, the Rev. Dr. H. Pat Albright. The lectureship is intended to bring outstanding scholars in the Wesleyan tradition to Pittsburgh Theological Seminary’s campus.

Joseph W. Deering is a graduate of Harvard University (B.A.) and Stanford University (M.B.A.). He came to Pittsburgh in 1980 as the President of Ejer Plumbingware. The following year his family became active in Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church and began a life-long friendship with the Albrights.

H. Pat Albright is the former pastor of Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church. He served as adjunct faculty at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, teaching homiletics and theological reflections on ministry. Albright is a member emeritus of the Board of Directors. He holds degrees from Marshall University and Boston University School of Theology and studied at Oxford University. Albright received the D.D. from Allegheny College in 1978.
NO SHAME IN WESLEY’S GOSPEL:
A 21ST CENTURY
PASTORAL THEOLOGY

Edward P. Wimberly

Jarena Lee Professor of Pastoral Care
Interdenominational Theological Seminary,
Atlanta, Ga.

Thursday, April 26, 2012

2:00 p.m.
No Shame in Wesley’s Gospel:
The Shame Factor

3:45 p.m.
Public Theology, Civil Rights,
and the Wesleyan Spirit

Thursday, April 26, 2012

2:00 p.m.
No Shame in Wesley’s Gospel:
The Shame Factor

3:45 p.m.
Public Theology, Civil Rights,
and the Wesleyan Spirit