NURTURED BY GOD'S WORD

SCHEDULE

HWJR: HOW WOULD JESUS READ?

In much that passes for Bible study and biblical preaching, Scripture is treated as a therapy tool, a word association game, or an armory to which we come for weapons to wield against those with whom we disagree. So, how should we read the Bible? In this presentation, we will consider how Jesus read Scripture. Together, we will examine the antitheses in Matthew 5 and the texts that they cite, seeking to learn from Jesus how to read the Bible, not literally or legalistically, but as the word of God for the people of God.

THE REV. DR. STEVEN TUELL is the James A. Kelso Associate Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament at PTS. After studying at West Virginia Wesleyan College and Princeton Theological Seminary, Dr. Tuell earned his Ph.D. in Hebrew Bible at Union Theological Seminary (Va.). He has taught at Erskine College, S.C. and Randolph-Macon College, Va. Tuell has written numerous articles and book reviews, including multiple entries in Feasting on the Word (WJK). He has written The Law of the Temple in Ezekiel 40-48 in the Harvard Semitic Monographs, and commentaries on 1 and 2 Chronicles and Ezekiel. He is now writing a commentary on Nahum through Malachi. An ordained elder in The United Methodist Church, Tuell has served churches in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia.

In order to lead, one must be growing in one's faith. Come spend time in worship, reflection, and sharing. Depart refreshed, having fed your soul and your mind in the company of your colleagues in educational ministry.

WORKSHOPS

A. "CAR TALK: Equipping Parents to Share God's Story"

Jana Hall - Certified Christian Educator
Alice Fidler - Pastor & Former Church Educator
Renee Wallace - Educator, Hampton PC

Families would ideally have devotions with their children each day, but they struggle to find the time. This workshop will explore ways for parents to help their children grow spiritually as life happens—in the car on the way to soccer practice, at the dinner table, out on the playground, etc.

B. "The Year of the Bible: A New Culture"

James E. Davison - Director, Continuing Education & Lecturer in Greek

"Biblical illiteracy" is a common complaint in congregations - more and more people in our pews know less and less about the Bible! The Year of the Bible was originally designed to help combat that problem. Come learn the latest ways the new edition can help you read the entire Bible in one year and build a new sense of community in your congregation.

C. "Hands-On Exploration of the Bible"

Karen Bowden Cooper - Curator, Kelso

Bible Lands Museum & Lecturer in Hebrew
We will explore ways that thinking concretely about life among the Israelites and their neighbors can help to bring the Bible alive. The group will draw on the Bible Lands Museum's collections and on other resources—images and activities—that illuminate daily life in ancient times and help readers envision the Biblical world.
