

A Day with Daniel Hill on May 6, 2019

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

When it comes to the Biblical call for reconciliation, white Christians in particular often feel lots of confusion. When we look at other groups of color, we see them as having culture - but when it comes to our own we often feel a sense of void. Join us on May 6th to learn about ways to understand the impact of race on the church and to form disciples who are agents of reconciliation.

1:00-5:00 p.m. Workshop for Ministry Leaders ~ FREE with advance registration

"White Awake: Developing a Discipleship Framework for Awakening to and Confronting the System of Race" Attendees will receive a copy of White Awake.

5:15-6:45 p.m. Dinner by reservation only. $15/person

7:00-9:00 p.m. Evening presentation ~ FREE - registration encouraged

"Racism and the Church: A Conversation with Daniel Hill and Todd Allen"

Presenters

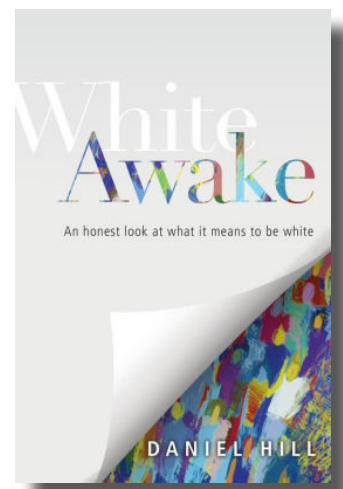

- Daniel Hill, Senior Pastor, River City Community Church, Chicago, Ill., and Author
- Todd Allen, Special Assistant to the President & Provost for Diversity Affairs, and Professor of Communication, Messiah College, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Online Registration: www.pts.edu/DanielHill-2019

You can attend one, two, or all three of the day's events.

CEUs: Available for clergy upon request.

Questions: ConEd@pts.edu or 412-924-1345

A Day with Daniel Hill on May 6, 2019

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

When it comes to the Biblical call for reconciliation, white Christians in particular often feel lots of confusion. When we look at other groups of color, we see them as having culture - but when it comes to our own we often feel a sense of void. Join us on May 6th to learn about ways to understand the impact of race on the church and to form disciples who are agents of reconciliation.

1:00-5:00 p.m. Workshop for Ministry Leaders ~ FREE with advance registration

"White Awake: Developing a Discipleship Framework for Awakening to and Confronting the System of Race" Attendees will receive a copy of White Awake.

5:15-6:45 p.m. Dinner by reservation only. $15/person

7:00-9:00 p.m. Evening presentation ~ FREE - registration encouraged

"Racism and the Church: A Conversation with Daniel Hill and Todd Allen"

Presenters

- Daniel Hill, Senior Pastor, River City Community Church, Chicago, Ill., and Author
- Todd Allen, Special Assistant to the President & Provost for Diversity Affairs, and Professor of Communication, Messiah College, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Online Registration: www.pts.edu/DanielHill-2019

You can attend one, two, or all three of the day's events.

CEUs: Available for clergy upon request.

Questions: ConEd@pts.edu or 412-924-1345

