VISIT CAMPUS

Hearing God's call to attend seminary? Wondering if Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is the right place for you? We would love to host you for a visit!

Experience a virtual or in-person visit to learn more about the Seminary, the city, and the rigors of our degree programs!

Contact Admissions to schedule your visit!

VISIT PITTSBURGH SEMINARY

It isn't just the classwork that will prepare you for your future ministry, our special programs also offer cross-cultural experiences, opportunities for urban ministry, practical preparation for innovative and adaptive ministry, and the chance to explore life in biblical times through our Kelso Museum of Near Eastern Archaeology.

Pittsburgh also provides opportunities for inner-city, suburban, small-town, rural, traditional, and emergent church leadership all within a short drive of campus.

We invite you to connect with our Admissions team, Financial Aid Office, current students, and program directors. You will have the opportunity to experience one of our classes.

Our graduates have gone on to be pastors, mission workers, chaplains, church planters, professors, counselors, and lawyers, as well as church and lay leaders. Pittsburgh Seminary will prepare you for ministry in the way of Jesus. So, join us!

If you join us for a visit, we will waive the $60 application fee. Looking forward to seeing you soon!

If you're interested in participating in a virtual or in-person visit, please complete the form below. For those visiting in person, please complete the Seminary's daily health check via LiveSafe. We regularly evaluate and adapt our health and safety procedures to meet the changing circumstances. For the most up to date campus visitor procedures, contact Admissions. Or if you have have questions about campus visitor procedures, e-mail Admissions: Click to view e-mail.
