ENGAGING PRACTICAL SCHOLARSHIP WITH THE CHURCH AND WORLD

For those engaged in ministry leadership—clergy or lay, full time or bi-vocational, in local congregations or community contexts—the Office of Continuing Education offers theologically reflective and contextually relevant educational opportunities to empower you and the communities you serve. Through our lectures, conferences, non-credit classes and workshops both in person and online, and collegial learning groups, you'll find a diverse community of formation in which to grow vocationally and spiritually.

This is your office of Continuing Education! Our ministry is to help your ministry, in your neighborhoods, with the resources you need. Let us know how we can resource you!

Continuing Education is part of the PTS Neighborhood Collaborative.
