DOCTOR OF MINISTRY CREATIVE WRITING AND PUBLIC THEOLOGY REFERENCE

* Name of Applicant?

has applied for admission to Pittsburgh Theological Seminary as a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree. The DMin is a professional degree program and is designed to enhance the candidate's competence in the practice of ministry. Work in this program will be closely integrated with the candidate's current engagement in ministry. Your name has been given to us as a reference, and we trust you will give the following items your careful consideration.

* How long have you known the applicant?

* What is your occupation?

* What are your impressions of the applicant's character, aims, and values? How do others regard the applicant? Does the applicant have any special strengths, weaknesses or problems of which we should be aware?

* What is your estimation of the applicant’s creativity in relation to writing?

* How would you describe the applicant’s voice as a public theologian?

Would you like to have him/her on the staff of your church, organization, or institution?

We welcome any additional comments you think might be helpful to us.
