

HOSPITALITY AND ECUMENISM

Feb. 15, 2017, 9:30-11:30 a.m. / Hospitality and Ecumenism / Liddy Barlow, Executive Minister, Christian Associates of Southwest PA

The church might have been united for five minutes on the day of Pentecost, but ever since then, we have been quarreling, feuding, and dividing. A hospitable ecumenism insists that we not only tolerate, but indeed wholeheartedly welcome, perspectives very different from our own. How are we willing to change in order to make visible the unity for which Jesus prayed?
