

CELTIC SPIRITUALITY IN NATURE

A SPIRITUAL FORMATION ELECTIVE*

DATES

June 16, 7:00 p.m.- June 19, 12:15 p.m., 2019

OVERVIEW

The Celts held two books sacred in their understanding of the Divine - The Holy Scriptures and the Book of Nature. While the Celts found God in the natural world, they did not romanticize nature but rather saw it as allowing a full range of spiritual experiences to be uncovered and expressed. This class will explore the basics of Celtic Spirituality and apply them through nature-based spiritual practices that have been used by the Center for Spirituality in Nature; this Center is directed by Beth Norcross, our instructor. All of these activities will offer relevant ways to deepen our own individual and communal spirituality. Join us at Olmsted Manor Retreat Center in Ludlow, Pa. for this class.

Note. We will be spending a considerable amount of the class time going outside in nature to do Celtic-inspired nature-based spiritual practices so be prepared to bring appropriate shoes and outerwear.

INSTRUCTOR

Beth Norcross, Founding Director, Center for Spirituality in Nature
