THE 2050 CHURCH: CULTURE, TECHNOLOGY, AND THE CALL TO LEAD

PASTOR APPRECIATION LUNCHEON OCT. 9, 2025 PITTSBURGH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Calling all pastors!

Join us for the 2025 Pastor Appreciation Luncheon at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary—a day designed to refresh your spirit, deepen your learning, and connect you with fellow leaders in ministry. This enriching experience offers a time of worship, fellowship, and breakout sessions led by PTS faculty, all centered around exploring the future of the Church.

Our preacher for worship will be the Rev. Dr. Edwin Chr. van Driel, Directors' Bicentennial Professor of Theology at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, who will speak to the challenges of leading in ministry within a post-Christian culture. The keynote address will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. William Curtis, senior pastor of Mount Ararat Baptist Church in Pittsburgh, who will explore how technology is shaping leadership in the 21st-century Church. Whether you serve locally, regionally, or nationally, we want you to know that your work matters. Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is honored to walk alongside you as a partner in the ongoing call of Christ on your life and ministry.
