At PTS we welcome churches seeking to fill a variety of ministry positions and ministry agencies (including colleges and parachurch ministries) to post job openings to our website. Seminary students, graduates, and staff have access to the listings. We direct students to our placement site to explore a variety of ministry opportunities both during and beyond their theological education.

The Seminary welcomes you to post: Full- or part-time employment opportunities; service learning opportunities for current students; residencies; and others. If you represent an organization, business, or church and are interested in offering employment or volunteer opportunities to our students and graduates, we invite you to create a job profile by completing the form below, and we will post the position on our placement page.
