COLLECTING AND USING PERSONAL INFORMATION

When you visit our sites and when you communicate with us via our sites, we will not collect personal information about you, unless you provide it voluntarily. Pittsburgh Theological Seminary (PTS) will not sell, license, transmit, or disclose this information outside of PTS unless (a) expressly authorized by you, (b) necessary to enable PTS contractors or agents to perform certain functions for us, or (c) required or permitted by law. In all cases, we will disclose the information consistent with applicable laws and regulations and we will require the recipient to protect the information and use it only for the purpose it was provided.

E-MAIL

Please note that your e-mail may be viewed by others while in transit to us. For that reason, you should not use e-mail to communicate information that is confidential. If you wish, you may contact us instead via my.pts.edu, telephone at the numbers provided at various locations on our sites, or fax.

OTHER INFORMATION / COOKIES

You should also be aware that when you visit our websites, we collect certain information that does not identify you personally, but provides us with “usage data,” such as the number of visitors we receive or what pages are visited most often. This data helps us to analyze and improve the usefulness of the information we provide at these websites.

LINKING TO OTHER SITES

PTS websites link to other websites, not owned or controlled by PTS. PTS is not responsible for the privacy practices used by other websites or their content or accuracy. Links to non-PTS websites do not constitute or imply endorsement by PTS.

SECURITY

PTS follows best practice security standards designed to protect non-public personal information.

CHANGES TO THIS STATEMENT

PTS may change this policy from time to time. This policy is not intended to and does not create any contractual or other legal rights in or on behalf of any party.
